Equality Information and Objectives 2025

Transformation programme

As ORR develops its future operating model through its transformation programme, we will continue to consider how best to meet our obligations under the Public Sector Equality Duty. Equality impacts will be considered where relevant to ensure that changes to organisational arrangements and ways of working support us in meeting our duties and responsibilities.

- ← Previous Equality Information and Objectives 2025
- → Next Decision making